SPECIAL UNIVERSITY SERVICE: RECRUITMENT & RETENTION OF FACULTY & STUDENTS OF COLOR TO DIVERSIFY THE CAMPUS

- Faculty Adviser to the ALANA Program (Multicultural Life and Diversity). Model New York Senate for Latino Students, 2011.
- Have led the efforts in recruiting over 16 faculty/staff of color (including the current Director of Multicultural Life and Diversity and the Director of the Gospel Choir) to SUNY Cortland.
- Have developed contacts with high schools in Brooklyn, New York City, and the Bronx for prospective students to visit SUNY Cortland. These schools sponsor bus trips for students to visit SUNY Cortland. This activity is beyond the College's Open House and it is a collaborative effort with the Multicultural Life and Diversity Office.
- Developed contacts with community development groups in the city for recruitment and retention. With the assistance of the Admissions Office, I forward SUNY Cortland materials to these organizations and prospective students.
- Develop contacts for internship overseas, (Germany, England and Ghana) for students of color who would like to expand their educational experiences through internationalization.
